“ Jennie and Dwight,

I want to express my condolences to both of you and share some beautiful memories I cherish.

As a little girl I recall the great times spent at your home with Janice. During those times I witnessed Lawrence as a wonderful friend, husband, father and a Christian. I recall a bumper sticker on one of the vehicles. The sticker read, “ God is my copilot.” I believe Lawrence lived by those words. While attending Hebron Baptist Church, I have wonderful memories in the Koontz’ home watching Lawrence and my dad fill paper bags with apples, oranges and peanuts to hand out to the congregation at church for Christmas. Although, we have not crossed path for years, I still have beautiful memories to hold and know one day we will meet again.
