“ Mrs. Brittain as I always knew her, was the sweetest lady. We couldn't have asked for a nicer neighbor. I will never forget anytime we needed to borrow a cup of sugar or an egg, mom would say go ask Mrs. Brittain if we could borrow one. The same went for if she ever needed anything mom and dad was always there to help. We were so sad when she moved away. I often find myself looking over there thinking that I will see her outside hanging clothes on the line and talking to mom while she also hung hers on our line. I know that Heaven has gained another angel. Harvey, Ida and Martha, you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers.
