“ I only knew Leona briefly when I was senior in high school and knew her son David, then again in the last several months when she and my mother shared the same nursing home. She seemed like a really sweet person, and I just wanted to let David know how much I feel for him and his family at this time.

“ leona and i were the best of friends during our grade school years at Fleener School and growing into our teens.I have so many good memories of those years and of Leona. I remember her beautiful blonde hair, how pretty, sweet and fun she was.I was so sorry to read of her passing. My heartfelt sympathy to all her family.
