

Lillian Marie Jablonski

August 29, 1920 - October 31, 2009

Lillian Marie Jablonski, 89 of Bloomington passed away peacefully at Bloomington Hospital after a short illness on October 31, 2009. She was the daughter of Marie and Vaclav Pinkner of Brno, Czechoslovakia. As a young adult, Lillian sang on the radio in her native Czechoslovakia. She made the U.S. her permanent and beloved home before World War II. After completing Business College, she married Milo Jablonski and resided in the Chicago area until 2003 when she relocated to Bloomington. She was a member of St. Charles Borromeo Catholic Church. She was preceded in death by her husband, Milo Jablonski and her sister Blanche Navratil. Lillian is survived by her daughter, Daniella Ellis of New River, Arizona; son Milo Jablonski, Jr and wife Mary of Pensacola, Florida; son James Jablonski and wife Joyce of Aurora, Illinois and daughter Susan McNamara and husband Brian of Bloomington, Indiana; fifteen grandchildren and eleven great grandchildren. The family would like to express their gratitude for the caring staff at Brown County Health and Living Center and Bloomington Hospital nurses and Techs Mary, Shawn, Theresa, Tami, Andrea and Donna of Bloomington Hospice. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at St. Charles Borromeo Catholic Church on Thursday November 5, 2009 at 12:00 Noon with visitation one hour before the mass at church. Lillian was a lifelong supporter of the Native American Missions and so, in lieu of flowers, contributions may be sent to St. Anthony Indian Mission, P.O. Box 486, Zuni, New Mexico 87327-0486. Allen Funeral Home 4155 South Old highway 37 is handling the arrangements and online condolences may be sent to the family at www.allenfuneralhome.org.