“ Linda was the best neighbor ever. I loved setting on my deck with her while Lacey and Kabota (m dog) played. When my Kabota passed I don't know who cried more me or her. It took a couple of years for Lacey to quit looking for him. It's going to take a long time for me to quit looking for Linda. Rest In Heaven my dear friend.

Linda and I sort of grew up together. We lived in the same neighborhood and walked home from school together throughout elementary and junior high and had lots of summer adventures on our bikes. I'm so glad we reconnected recently on Facebook. I'm so sad at her loss and will miss virtual chatting with her. My deepest condolences to her family and friends.

Linda was just as lovely in 2020 as she was when we graduated back in 1968. Such a warm smile...She will be missed by many.
