Tribute Wall

“ Although Lisa and I lost touch a while back (just due to life and distance), I've thought of her often and she was really on my mind (as it turned out) on the day she passed. I had no idea why she popped into my thoughts that particular day, but now I know. We were quite close for a while, and I've not forgotten our trip to Bloomington to meet some of her family (Dona & Lynn). We had so much fun taking trips (got lost headed to Va Beach and ended up at Ocean City so of course we just went with it!) & just hanging out. Lisa was so open, easy to talk to and never judgemental-we loved listening to music and just being in the moment, not stressing too much about anything! I hope that Heaven is just like our chill out, stress free sessions- I think Lisa would love that :).
