“ *In celebration of Lisa's life here on earth. As, I ponder this morning smiling sharing many memories of my sweet sister in Christ visualizing Lisa in the presence of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. If there is one thing I could share this morning that Lisa would say. Having a personal relationship with Christ. Accepting his free gift of Salvation would be the First and fourth most importance. As life here on earth is a mist and isn't our home. I truly will miss my prayer warrior. Until we meet again. Sending my condolences to my sweet Ed and the Rader family. With, Christ love. “ My little Aunt Lisa. I'm at a loss for words as I know I'll never hear you say "HEY SWEETIE" in a chipper tone again until I see you in heaven. You were the glue that brought everyone together. You will be missed. There will be a large gap where your presence was. We love you.

“ I will miss Lisa very much. My heart goes out to her family. I have known Lisa for about 14 years. We attended Plainfield Christian Church together. She was a faithful attendee and contributor in our adult SS class-Logos. Lisa was always there with her mini laptop and her portable keyboard. As the prayer concerns were voiced every week, she made notes of the concerns and our teacher Brian prayers. She is a Christian who I would characterize as “praying unceasingly” for those who experienced life’s challenges. I am honored to celebrate Lisa’s life with her family and all her friends who have posted on AllenCares. God bless you all for doing so! She was like a sister to me. We were both photography buffs. We photographed a few weddings together. She photographed for community clubs and groups like women’s circles. She was gifted-she had an eye for how to pose a shot. Her collection of cards that she created using her photos of flowers were something to behold. I was looking at a few of them last week and noted how she captured God’s beauty of the lilies she delicately “tipped” and placed on the front of her card.

She would often consult me about her personal matters that she and her loving father Ed always consulted on. I will never forget the care she provided to her mom-and the last words she spoke to her mom before she passed into heaven.

Our Logos class will always remember her opening her home to a couple of our class gatherings. Her backyard and her landscaping had a simple elegance to it. She thought of every detail for our get-togethers. In our meetings and conversations, she was concerned about details. Why she put up with me I don’t know as I am the opposite of her.

In her last days, she communicated with me by text. As I and our class from church was praying for her and our communications to me continued, she ministered to me and us! Somehow, she managed sent a Christmas card by phone to our class. In her last words to me:” Thank you my brother” she expressed her thanks and prayers to us! She truly had a heart of gold. Her brother Jay somehow was able to keep lots of people updated. This is a testimony to Lisa! Lots of friends. Lisa, see you soon, your brother

in Christ, Mark

“ Lisa was one of my closest friends in college and we have remained friends for many years since then. Among many wonderful qualities, some that stand out to me are Lisa’s artistry, her love of animals and nature, her constant devotion to her family and friends, and especially her love and service to our Lord Jesus Christ, which was the cornerstone of Lisa’s life. I am so thankful for the many happy memories that Lisa and I shared and the love that held our friendship together through many years. To Mr. Rader and all of Lisa’s family, I pray that you will be comforted knowing that Lisa is in God’s Throne Room reunited with her mother and her sister for all eternity.

“ Lisa was so kind and a heart of Gold. She gave all her obstacles / adventures 100%. Lisa was strong, fighter and never gave up. A true example of a child of God. We will miss you Lisa and all the love you shared with others. I will miss the fellowship at the brunches you, your dad and I had shared at Stone Creek. You are pain free now and surrounded by love. I will see you again. Missed but not never forgotten. ❤️

“ Lisa was like a sister. I met her through American Heritage Girls where she was a mentor and leader. Her focus on God and others has been and will continue to be an encouragement to my family and me. She will be missed but we are rejoicing knowing that she is in paradise with our Savior. Much love and many prayers for her family.

“ Although we only met in September 2021 on your neighborhood walk, we had a connection as Sisters in Christ, were looking forward to sharing friendship later and playing Euchre. I'm so saddened that your warmth will be missed by many, but it is a wonderful celebration when you know someone doesn't die but just phases into Heaven to be with Jesus and loved ones gone before. You are a special lady; enjoy your rewards and eternal life in your Mansion in the Sky. I'll be joining you there in God's perfect timing.
