“ To Pam, Greg, Jon Jenise--We are sorry that we are unable to attend Marshall's funeral today, but I (Janet) had another commitment that I had to keep. We have such fond memories of Marshall as we served along side him at Westport. I remember once when I was in crisis that I called Marshall and Rev. Scaggs to pray with me. Marshall was there at at only an instant notice. I never will forget his kindness to me. John remembered that once when only he and Marshall showed up for a Sunday night service. Marshall was in charge and felt like they should sing hymns like they always did on Sunday evening--so John and Marshall sang. John wasn't sure it was a joyful noise, but hopefully it was in God's ears.

Marshall was always so supportive of the Good News Club when I started it. He served with us for several years. Marshall touched so many lives with his calm demeanor and his witness. I'm sure God said, "Welcome home, Marshall! Well done you good and faithful servant."

May God comfort you in your loss. It is sad to say good-bye, but what a comfort to know your dad is with the God he loved so deeply and with your mother whom he treasured. We wish we were there to give you each a hug. Love Janet & John Teitsort

“ I have so many precious memories of Marshall. He was truly a gift of God for my life and so many. His influence and ministry will extend into eternity. He is definitely one whom the Lord will say "Well done good and faithful servant." I believe he would be one who would be running through the gates of glory to meet His Lord and Savior. Also the happy reunion he is having with his precious wife. .... I am sorry I can't make the trip to Bloomington but I've had some health issues that prohibit me from traveling very far. Be assured the family is in my thoughts and prayers. .... Blessings in Christ; Candy and David Scaggs
