“ I grew up just down the road from Lois and Ivan. I was always welcomed whenever I stopped to visit and just say Hi or to go see Ivan’s dogs in the back. Lois was the kindest and most loving person. I miss them both. They made my life on Duncan Road lovely. I am so sorry and my deepest condolences to the family.

“ I remember Lois so fondly! Jan and I are close in age and Jack was on my class. I remember when Jeff was born! Mom had been invited to the baby shower for Jeff, and mom sent dad to buy a present. He came home with a little pair of PINK shoes! I don't remember if mom had to take them or not but it was funny to me. Lois always had a fun outlook on life and was such a dear friend! Praying for remaining family—I know you will miss her!
