Lois K. Pringle, age 96 of Bloomington passed away peacefully early Monday morning July 21, 2014 at the Bell Trace Assisted Living Center. Born in DuQuoin, Illinois, she was the daughter of Frank and Verda Keith.

Lois was schooled in Southern Illinois and Missouri, earning a teaching certificate and a registered nurse license.

She was married to Professor James W. Pringle, who preceded her in death in 2004.

Lois is survived by her daughter Carol Rodda, and son James K. Pringle along with three grand daughters Elizabeth, Julianne, and Emily Rodda, and one grandson, James G. Pringle. She also has three great grand children.

For many years Lois volunteered to assist the nursing staff at Bloomington Home Health Care.

The family would like to thank the staff at Bell Trace and Bloomington Indiana University Health Hospice for their compassionate care of Lois through the end of her life.

Cremation arrangements are entrusted to Allen Funeral Home and Crematory, 4155 South Old Highway 37.

Lois' memorial service will be private and online condolences may be sent to the family at www.allenfuneralhome.org.

Tribute Wall

“ Please accept my sincere condolences to your family. The words found in God's word at Philippians 4:13 is very encouraging. It promises "For all things I have the strength through the one who gives me power." May you benefit from that power to help you endure during this difficult time.
