

Loretta Fay Person

December 3, 1928 - February 17, 2018

Loretta Fay Person, 89, died February 17, 2018 at Garden Villa. Born in Searcy, Arkansas, she was the daughter of Lester and Veda Ferren. She lived in Arkansas, Oregon, California, Iowa, and Florida, prior to moving to Bloomington in 2014.

Loretta was a lively and active mother, wife, companion, and friend. She enjoyed good food, was an excellent cook, the arts, birdwatching, the outdoors, Florida's Gulf Coast, and her friends and family. She was an active volunteer starting in hospitals as a "pink lady" and ending as a volunteer poll worker for many years. She was a Democratic Delegate in the 1960's in Iowa. Her curiosity was expressed by travel in the United States, Europe, and South America. In addition, she completed many non-credit adult education courses in opera, jazz, politics, and history.

Survivors include her son, George Person of Malone, FL; daughter, Jean Person; son-in-law, Jack Duskow both of Unionville, IN; and former husband, Willis B. Person of Gainesville, FL.

She was preceded in death by both parents, her brother, Malvin Ferren, and her beloved companion, Paul Jenkins.

There will be no memorial services. Allen Funeral Home and Crematory, 4155

S. Old State Road 37, Bloomington have been entrusted with arrangements.
