“ When Dad was alive I remember him and Pete playing there guitars together and singing. I loved his Marty Robbins songs. He was one of a kind and I'll always have a special place in my heart for him.

“Pete” and Mary were long time seasonal residents of our mobile home park, Sheltering Pines, located in Ft. Myers, Fl. They were actively involved in the interests of the Home Owners’ Association .
“Pete” was, indeed, someone who enjoyed humor and he will be missed.
Both Pete and Mary were well liked and respected by their neighbors.

*Our Condolences on behalf of the neighborhood,
DuWayne Boudin,
President
