“ I am so saddened by Luke’s passing. I offer his family and friends my sincerest condolences. I was fortunate to have been one of Luke’s high school teachers. His daily “Good Morning, Ms. Burke” and his infectious smile never failed to warm my heart and brighten my day. He was such a kind soul. The world seemed a little brighter with him in it. His premature passing is so difficult for all who knew and loved him but his memory will live on in our hearts. Ann Burke

“ One of my last memories of Luke was being with him and his family on Christmas Day. He and his mom joined us for Christmas morning service, where we took one of our last family pics together in front of the cross. We went home and had Christmas brunch and opened gifts with his little niece, Charlotte (aka Charlie) which took a long time. His brother, Dillon, had bought Luke a pair of nice tennis/hiking shoes but he couldn't find the Christmas wrapping paper so he used wedding paper. We all got a good chuckle out of that! I even got a pic of Luke holding that gift with a big smile on his face, which I have included. Like always had a smile on his face and that's one of the things I loved about him.
