

Lynne C. Branam

November 27, 1928 - August 7, 2017

Lynne C. Branam, 88, of Bloomington, passed away on Monday, August 7, 2017, at Stonecroft Health Campus. She was born on November 27, 1928 in Boston, Massachusetts, the daughter of William and Catherine (Tierney) Cotter.

Lynne worked as a lab assistant with Sarkes Tarzan before devoting her life as homemaker. She was a member of St. Charles Catholic Church and enjoyed planting flowers and gardening. Lynne enjoyed traveling with her late husband, Robert. The two took bus trips that led them to Texas, New Orleans, Boston, and various places in Canada. Lynne never met a stranger and always had a kind word to say. She will be remembered as kindhearted soul, a devoted mother, and loving grandmother and great grandmother.

Lynne is survived by her daughters, Penelope (David) East and Pamela Luck; grandchildren, Erin East, Kyle Luck and Chad Luck; and great-grandchildren, Callie, Hayden, Ryder, and Rylan.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, Robert Branam and brother, William Cotter.

Family will receive friends from 10:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. on Saturday, August 12, 2017 at Allen Funeral Home and Crematory, 4155 S. Old State Road 37,

Bloomington. You are invited to share a memory or leave an online condolence to Lynne's family at www.allencares.com

“ Dear family, Dear Penny and Pam,
As a therapist at Redbud, I often had the joy of working with your mother. She was so much fun and we had our inside jokes. A visit from family would always come first and she would ring me up to put a hold "those darn exercises". There wasn't a day that she didn't speak of Bob and think back over the secure and stable life she had within your family. She is already missed, but never forgotten. I learned much from her spunky spirit. Thank you for letting me spend time with this great lady. Your friend, Beth Schroeder

“ I have thought so often of your Mom since Mom died now 3 and 1/2 years ago, especially since Lynne was at Redbud for quite some time, so every time I visited Mom I visited your Mom. She was always such an amazing lady, a go getter, and loved life, especially your Dad Bob, you girls and the grandkids, and great grandkids. We often visited about our times down at your house when Pam and I spent most of our middle school years at each others house. Your folks were so very kind and always extra special to all of us Morrison kids. My deepest condolences in your loss, as no one can replace your Mom, or Dad, but Moms just have a special place in our hearts!!! With much love and prayers Bruce and Jan Bakalyar (Morrison) Lakefield, Mn. 56150 MANY MANY PRAYER!

“ My condolences to the family of "Peggy" Lynne Branam. I met her & Bob through the Senior citizens. Altho both of us married Branams' there was no relation. She was so friendly and we shared many senior trips, did lots of talking. She will be sadly missed by all who knew her. She told me her nickname was Peggy, which was the same as my husbands step-mother. RIP Peggy.

“ So sorry for the loss of Linnie, thats what Mike always called her. She was one the greatest people in our lives. Bob and her help make my and mikes life complete. Helped mike with his career and helped with our first home, we loved them so much. Lynne always kept an eye open for our kids and call if she saw Lori getting into mischief. There could not be finer people than Lynne and Bob. I spent so many hours at the kitchen table with Lynne laughing and catching up on our daily gossip. So glad Mike and I visited her before he passed. I am sure he had opened arms for her and a big hug on Monday saying Linnie what you doing. I cannot attend the funeral I am so sorry, but I am still grieving Mike and I know Lynne would understand. I will love her always Pam and Mke Combs

“ Peg and Bob were our favorite neighbors when we first moved to Bloomington 15 years ago. We lived on the corner of Grimes and Stull. We loved visiting with them and they made us feel welcome from the very start. We are sorry for your loss. Your mom was a sweet lady. Mary Boutain and Colleen Haas
