“ I've known Marcella for several years and she was a special lady. The Stanford group used to meet at Karst Park and I did some of the meeting programs for them. Marcella was always so kind and welcoming to everyone who attended. A few years ago I took over the planning of the Senior Day at the Fair and Marcella and her friends provided the food service and some of the entertainment. She was always organized and hard-working. I'll miss her very much and send my condolences to the family.
