“ Aunt Marie, one of my dad's sisters, has been like my second mother for 74 years. Because, she had a son, Richard, born 4/3/45/, then I was born 3/28/46. Our families were always visiting one another, like weekly it seemed. At the age of my remembrance, 2 or 3, it started. We, my family, would go to visit dad's sister, aunt Marie. Richard and I became like brothers down through time. Playing together, growing together, and watching life change down through the years. Our friendship never changed. He was at my home, or I was at his home often. Marie was (OUR) mother at his house, and my mother was (OUR) mother at my house. Aunt Marie has been a special lady to a LOT of people and family in her lifetime. She will be missed greatly, but, she was ready to go home, both physically, and, spiritually. She loved her savior, and he loves her. We may be heavy hearted, but, we can rejoice. knowing she is HOME. Don Hawkins

“ One of the most amazing Women of God I have ever met! Her hugs and just the way she held your hand made everything feel ok. My prayers are with the family. I thank God that she is now in Heaven with a whole body and mind! I can't wait to see you again!

“ I met Sister Marie at the church we both attended. She was very pleasant, shook hands & gave me a hug. I really got to know Sister Marie when she began to have health problems. I visited her everyday , my brother was there fighting this terrible disease known as Alzhemier . She was such a blessing to be around, we all would set outside and all have great talks. Marie was always focused on God, reading her bible everyday. I got to know Sister Marie , her daughters & her son. Her children were very devoted to there mom. Everyday at least one was with there mom . At the beginning Marie & my brother would walk the halls at night with there bibles with them. Such a blessing to each other. Always smiled when I walked in , give her a hug, and a kiss on her forehead. I shall never forget you , I'm so glad that I got to know you, and I'm so honored to call you my dear & Precious friend. I am going to miss you , things will never be the same as I returned to continue seeing my brother, and passing your empty room. I know that you are in your Heavenly Home, such Peace and pain free. Heaven gained a very a Special Angel. I Love 💕 you , and your beautiful devoted daughters & son who love ❤️ you so much as all your family and friends do. My heart ❤️ is sad & broken for your family today. 💕💔💕💕 as I write my memories of my dear friend. Yes you are in a such a beautiful new home. The Angels are singing. I love 💕 you , I'm thankful to have Precious Memories of my friend. May God place his arms around each one of your loving & kind family today. Give them Strength, & Peace , let them feel your comfort thru the days ahead of them. Love ❤️ & Prayers To You All. . Gone but never forgotten. 💕💕💕💕💕💕💕💕💕💕
