“ Joan Self was my aunt by marriage to Kenny Self, my mother's brother. Although I didn't get to see them often, Aunt Joan was always one of the sweetest and kindest persons I have ever known. I remember her as being a cheerful person and never being critical of others. She loved her family dearly and I will always remember her delicious chocolate mayonnaise cake. Whenever she saw me, she reminded me that she was happy when I was born because "I was her first niece!". Love you, Aunt Joan. I know you are at peace and with our Lord. Love and comfort to Uncle Kenny, Mike, Jeff and all extended family. JoEllen
