

Marsha Mary Kane

November 8, 1947 - July 16, 2013

Marsha Mary Kane, age 65, of Bloomington passed away at her residence Tuesday morning July 16, 2013. She was born November 8, 1947 in Washington, D.C.

Marsha was an educator, artist and musician who enjoyed playing the harp, guitar and piano. She had a deep love for her husband, children, grandchildren and her faith.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at St Charles Borromeo Catholic Church Thursday July 18, 2013 at 11:00AM. The recitation of the Holy Rosary will be on Thursday at 10:30AM at St Charles as well.

In lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be made to the IU Simon Cancer Center and online condolences may be sent to the family at www.allenfuneralhome.org.

“ Dear Frank, Shannon, Rebecca, Alison, and Grandchildren,

Marsha is the most loving caring woman I have ever known. Her devotion and deep love for each of you was special and heartwarming. I've known her since first grade. She and I giggled our way through Our Lady Queen of Peace Elementary School and two years at LaReine H.S. So many wonderful memories! Love and prayers kept her here as long as possible. Thank you for the tremendous care that you all gave her. I'm sure she's in heaven. What a witness for the faith!

“ In addition to her Indiana family, Marsha is also survived by her 90-year-old father and me, her sister, both of us from California. I was able to spend one month with Marsha before her passing and had the pleasure of meeting many of you during that visit. I will always remember our years growing up together and cherish our friendship as adults. Marsha was a funny, strong woman of faith and I'm honored to be her sister.

“ Dear Frank, Shannon, Allie, Rebecca and "grands":
Marsh was one of the most magnificently UP people I have ever known! Her stories and live acts were the prop under many of my good Edgewood memories. I have several things Marsha created -- some I bought; some were precious gifts. I have already passed along the busily filled Noah's Ark and one of the dolls. These were gifts to children of one of my student teachers who also remembers Marsha from Edgewood time. I cherish the basket she gave me as a gift -- it looked better than the ones I learned to make under her guidance! I still tell the story of Marsha's "jarring" her preserved food instead of "canning" it! Oh, and the tame white rats! Rare. What a special person! And what an effort to survive to love her family...sincerely, SarahK

“ Dear Frank and family,

Marsha was an incredible wife, mother, grandmother, teacher, and friend. I know because she expressed this in her writings as well as when you talked one and one with her.

The heavens received a new angel and one who comes playing a harp as well as the piano. God opened HIS arms to welcome her home and she has no more pain and suffering.

A donation to our local hospice center will be made in her memory.

Our sincerest sympathy to you and your family and God be with each of you as you journey through your grief. Our prayers are with you.

*Sincerest Sympathy,
Connie and Joe Jablonski*

“ Dear Allison, Rebecca, Mr. Kane, Shannon, and Family, I am so sorry for your loss. Thinking of Mrs. Kane brings back a lot of happy memories. I remember her voice yelling at cross country meets and the rhythmic patter of her stenciling machine. I know she loved you all very much and that she will be sorely missed. I am thinking of all of you. With sympathy and love, Elizabeth LaFollette

“ Dear Frank and Kane family, We have lost a beautiful, intelligent woman--wife, mother, grandmother, and friend. But we all have happy memories of Marsha--she was such a delight and always bringing laughter to our midst. We were miles apart in distance but our hearts were close. She was one of the best college friends of mine and I will never forget Marsha and Frank's wedding. It was a bright summer day, August 3, 1968. Marsha will always hold a special place in my heart.

“ Frank, Allison, Rebecca, and Shannon, we are so sorry for your loss. I have known Marsha for so long. We taught together for almost 20 years and I have such wonderful memories of her. She was the funniest woman I have ever known, and all the faculty vied with each other to tell the latest "Marsha story." I know she was a wonderful wife, mother, and grandmother. You are all in our thoughts.

“ We are deeply saddened by Marsha’s passing. Marsha was more than just a neighbor...she was a friend and a great individual. She has always been so kind to us and has always welcomed us in her home.

Her passing will not only be difficult for us, but for all who knew her. She will always be remembered within our hearts.

Please don’t hesitate to ask for anything during these and future times, as we will consider it an honor to assist in any way we can. We are here for you and your family.

With deepest sympathy,

The Waymon Family (André, Regina, Jessie, Jaela, CéAira, and Noah)

“ Frank and family,

I was so sorry to hear of Marsha's death. You don't know me, but I worked with her while she was at Edgewood, and I have been retired for several years myself. Marsha was a good teacher and co-worker and so much fun to be around. She could always make me laugh, and I still relate some of her stories to my friends and family...and they laugh with me, continuing her legacy. I pray your own memories of her will help you carry on during this time of missing her so much.

“ *Dear Kane Family,
My deepest sympathy goes out to you. Mrs. Kane was a wonderful woman and was so kind to me. She taught me and countless children not only how to pray the rosary but also to quiet ourselves and really enjoy this wonderful prayer. I have missed her in the classroom but have faithfully continued to pray the rosary nearly everyday as a class in her name. My prayers will go out to you each day in the coming days that the Lord will bring you comfort in this sad time.*

“ Allison & family,

So very sorry to hear about your mom, but know she is resting peacefully. You all did so much to treasure the last decade of her life. I think of her every Christmas when I get out that special decorated tree she made. What a gift all of you gave her in this life with the love your entire family has shown in her care. Thoughts & prayers with you all...

“ Marsha took the crimson colored thread which was her faith and made rainbows from it. She left beautiful threads every where she went; threads in brilliant colors called peace, hope, joy, and love. She would weave them into the fabric of our lives; lives which are brighter because of her. She left us an enduring legacy, one which makes us all better people.

The Master Weaver called her home, but she will never leave our hearts. Her crimson thread shines in His glory now. So, we pick up her threads and continue the tapestry of loving one another.

Thank you, Marsha!

“ My heartfelt sympathy goes out to Frank, Shannon, Allison, Rebecca and their grandkids. Marsha was a beautiful woman inside and out. She had such an upbeat personality and spirit. She had a way of brightening up anyone's day. I found it impossible not to smile whenever I was in her presence. She never treated me like a babysitter, but rather a friend. I will never forget her. The world has lost a very special person, but heaven has gained a beautiful gift. I am going to miss her terribly, but will treasure the memories I had with her.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Marsha's passing. She was fun, loved to laugh and I so enjoyed hearing her tell her stories! She was such a blessing to so many and loved life to the fullest! Her faith lifted her throughout her illness and made her strong. No doubt she wanted to stay here with the people she loved as long as she could, but you know that now she is rejoicing in heaven with the same passion she had here on earth!

Much love to you and many prayers for your healing.

“ Frank, Shanon, Allie, Rebecca, and grandchildren,

We're so very sorry for your profound loss. Though I didn't see most of you very often, I'm proud to have known Marsha and her beloved family members.

She fought valiantly and with all her might and I know she will be sorely missed. Most of all she has been a tremendous witness for the Christian faith. May the God of peace be with you all.
