

Martha Ellen (Diehl) Saulter

April 23, 1928 - July 6, 2018

It is with great sadness that the family of Martha Ellen Saulter (Diehl), announces her passing on Friday July 6, 2018, at the age of 90.

Martha was born April 23, 1928 in Oolitic, Indiana to Charles Dewey and Roxie (Swango) Diehl, their only child. She was a graduate of Oolitic High School in 1946 where she made her lifelong friend MaryAlice. Martha married Victor Saulter on December 20, 1947 at the courthouse in Bloomfield, Indiana where they made their first home. They started their family in 1954 and eventually welcomed three children. Together in 1963 Martha and Victor moved their children to Unionville, Indiana to start two businesses; a grocery store "Highway Market" and TV antenna business "V&V Electronics". After setting roots and becoming a staple in the community, Martha raised her three children and kept the books for both of the family businesses until Victor's passing in 1978. Martha took up residence in Bloomington, Indiana in 1979 until her passing. She spent her days making beautiful quilts, working crossword puzzles, and reading mystery novels.

Martha was best known for spoiling her four grandchildren with lots of homemade delicious baked goods and playing hours of board and card games. One of her greatest joys was becoming a great grandmother, family meant everything to her. Martha always showed support by attending all of her grandchildren and great grandchildren's organized activities up until the week she passed.

Loved ones that will miss Martha until they meet again are her three children Steve Saulter, Ken Saulter, and Judy Gardner. Martha, known to her family as “Nana,” will be forever remembered by her four grandchildren, five great grandchildren, and her dear childhood friend. Martha was predeceased by her husband Victor Saulter.

Memorial donations in memory of Martha may be made to IU Hospice House, 2810 S Deborah Dr, Bloomington, IN 47403.
