“ Jennifer, we are so saddened by your mother's passing and our deepest prayers and thoughts to you and your family. Believe that even though she is gone physically, she will never truly be gone. She'll always be in your thoughts, when you see something that reminds you of her, cooking a favorite dish or smelling her favorite kind of flower. She'll be there watching and guiding you. A mother's love is endless. May God bless you and keep you strong. We love you.

“ May you find comfort in the memories that are yours to cherish always, and strength in the companionship of those who share your loss.... I have learned never to underestimate the healing power we all have. It is always there to be used for the highest good. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. (Matthew 5:4) May it be a source of inner strength to know that there's a loving God watching over you, and that, throughout this time of need, He'll stay close by your side.

I have fought the fine fight, I have run the course to the finish, I have observed the faith.-2Timothy 4:7. As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep; I shall certainly awake, for Jehovah himself keeps supporting me. -Psalms 3:5

“ Tim, Jennifer, Rebecca and Sarah - we were so sorry to hear of your loss. Mary Ann was always smiling and folding laundry every time I saw her at the Pierce household. What a warm and giving lady. May you all be comforted by the healing love of God as He surrounds you with your friends and family in the days and weeks to come. God bless.

“ Tim, Martha, Rebecca and family. What a wonderful woman! So peaceful and gentle. We will cherish the memories, sitting near us in Church for years, serving with her as a Eucharistic Minister. And just a couple of weeks ago, renewing her wedding vows, standing side-by-side with Tim in St. Paul's, on the day of her 59th anniversary. What a shining example for all of us. Mary Ann always had a ready smile, asking about our family. No matter what, she showed such serenity, the peace of God in her life. May He give you strength and peace during this sad time. We know Mary Ann is in such a wonderful place now. Our prayers are with you. May Jesus and His Mother comfort you. Pete and KyungHee, Meehan and Saehan Lenzen.
