

Mary Elizabeth Deckard

June 25, 1965 - June 2, 2025

Mary was a vibrant soul who literally was the life of the party. Her laugh was infectious, and her spirit illuminated every room she entered. She had a unique way of making it through this world, and she leaves behind a legacy of joy and warmth that will continue to inspire us. Beyond her lively presence, Mary was also the devoted mother of two boisterous boys, John and Austin. She handled everything in stride, demonstrating an incredible patience and strength that only a mother could possess. She created a home filled with love, laughter, and an unwavering sense of security, always putting her family first. Mary always made sure her boys were taken care of.

The lasting memories of Mary are vast and truly profound: a hardworking, passionate figure of strength who never waned in her support or love of family. She was our rock, our confidante, and our greatest champion. When times were tough, she soldiered on, showing us what true resilience looks like. She taught us the importance of perseverance, the power of love, and the value of a strong family bond. "Ripple in still water, when there is no pebble tossed, nor wind to blow. Her love will continue to ripple through our lives."
