“ Although I did not know you dear loved one, I saw the obituary online and wanted to send you my condolences. This is a very difficult time for your family. Something that has always given me comfort is a scripture at Revelation 21:4. It says: "and he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no mor, neither will mourning, nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. " I sincerely hope this brings you comfort

“ Mary was indeed a very special person and she touched my husband and my hearts many times. Loved to travel and loved to talk about her grandkids. A special lady who will be sadly missed.

“ I was sorry to learn of Mary's passing. I worked with her during the late 1940's at the Bell Telephone office in Bloomington. She was always such a nice person. You have my deepest sympathy.

“ Although I did not know Mary long or very well, I remember her with great respect and fondness. For a time I worked as a job coach for a young man who was employed with Mary at the TIS warehouse. As he worked, Mary and I would sometimes chat. She told me about her work for Indiana Bell, about her sons and her beloved grandchildren. She talked about her many travels, about wanting to learn Spanish at Ivy Tech and about her frustration with one of her friends whom she felt had married in haste after being widowed. Mary could have a temper, and she did not suffer fools lightly. But she worked well with my client, treating him with respect and even fondness. It's a horrible thing to outlive a child, and I remember Mary's grief in the wake of Marty's death. I can't imagine how she went through that a second time. But that was the kind of woman she was. When my role at TIS ended, those moments with Mary were among the parts I missed most. You have my deepest sympathies in your loss. She was an amazing woman, and the lives of those she knew are the richer for having known her.

“ The families of Dale and Ruth McClung, David and Brenda Polley, and Robert and Janis McClung extend our sympathies to your families in the loss of your grandmother. We are the descendents of Lewis Edwin McClung, son of Joseph Carl McClung whose second wife was Phoebe Gebard McClung. Dale is in the hospice program now with cancer and Ruth has dementia. They reside with Brenda.

“ Bill Paxton took a chance and hired an "older woman" at Roadway and I can never thank him enough. I would meet with Mary about once a month at Bob Evans for breakfast before going into Roadway. I visited her several times at the nursing home. Mary had spunk and I liked that most about her. She will be missed.
