“ I grew up in the yellow house behind Mary's. Mary & Norman were a huge part of my childhood. I spent a lot of time at their house after school & on the weekends. Mary taught me to draw & about plants & flowers. Norman taught me about stamp collecting & how to swing a golf club. They took me to the American Legion & I had my first Shirley Temple & Norman had the bartender "dress it up" so it would look like a real drink. His was the first tatoo I ever saw & I remember being fascinated with it. They were both wonderful people and are both missed.
