“ I just wanted to pass along my condolences. Great Aunt Mary was a wonderful woman and made a positive impression on everyone she met. She was always kind to me. I have many fond memories of being a little boy and playing Author cards with Mary, my mom (Brenda) and Great Grandma Brazzell. I recently found some reproduction cards and have passed the game on to my children. Even though her passing is sad, I have those fond memories to always carry with me.

Love, Dan Atchison and family

“ We are related, though we don't know each other. I recognized the Brazzell name. When I was very young I remember someone by the Brazzell name coming to visit my grandmother, which was Nina Crum Wilson. Her mother's name I believe was Feathersby Inman. I would say she was probably a sister to Ida Jane but I don't know. Some in my family have done some searching on the family, but I don't remember hearing about this. I am sure my grandmother, Nina had a brother James that they called Jimmy. I think he passed when I was maybe 8 or 9 or so. I am now 77. My father was Orville Wilson, son of Jesse and Nina Wilson. Just a bit of info. God bless.
