

Mary E Wisley

January 7, 1921 - May 2, 2016

Mary Ellen (Freese) Wisley, 95, of Bloomington, passed away Monday, May 2, 2016.

She was born January 7, 1921 in Monroe County, the daughter of Daniel Warren Freese and Viola May (Sears) Freese. She married Bert Edwin Wisley on September 25, 1938.

Mary is survived by her brother, David Walter Freese of Bloomington, three children, Steve Wisley, Julie Wisley, both of Bloomington, Mark Wisley (Kathy) of Freedom, IN, eight grandchildren, and eleven great great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband, son, John Keith Wisley, and daughter-in-law, Rhea Dawn (Parsley) Wisley.

Mary was a 1937 graduate of Smithville High School, worked at RCA, and owned the Pot Pourri Ceramic shop in Bloomington, with her husband Bert, was a 4-H leader, and a member of Southside Christian Church.

She was a housewife, loving mother, wife, and grandmother. Her eyes would light up with each visit from grandchildren. Mary showed her love, creativity, and consideration of others when making unique birthday cakes, embroidering pictures of children's artwork, making quilts for others, and painting beautiful ceramic gifts for friends and relatives. She was also a great cook, loved to read (especially history) . She loved her dogs, Gretel and Lizzie and the animals she grew up with on the farm.

A memorial service will be held 11:00 Saturday, May 7, 2016, at Southside Christian Church. Pastor Craig Moore will officiate.
