

Maxine Jones

April 16, 1922 - November 24, 2019

Maxine Jones, 97, passed to her heavenly home on Sunday, November 24th surrounded by her family.

Maxine is survived by her husband of almost 79 years, Dan, and children Rita Keller of Bloomington, Michael of Dallas, TX, Bev Dunbar (Tom) of Terre Haute and Max (Gail) of Greenwood, 12 grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren. Maxine was a member of Bloomington First Church of the Nazarene. Graveside services will be held at the Clear Creek Cemetery on Wednesday, November 27th with the Reverend James Hicks presiding.

The Allen Funeral Home has been entrusted with arrangements.

The Family would like to thank the Golden Living Center for the exceptional care given during her stay; and, Asera Hospice assisting in her peaceful passing. If you wish to honor the memory of Maxine, please contribute to the First Church of the Nazarene, 700 W. Howe St., Bloomington, IN 47403; Asera Hospice Care, 1000 Fianna Way, Fort Smith, AR 72919 or the charity of your choice.

“ What a beautiful lady! When I was a child, she was my idol. My mother (her Aunt Lela) made me a child's cheerleader's skirt and top to kind of match hers. I am her last first cousin on her mother's side, and I didn't know she was still living. My name is Sarah Kolb Bruner (Sally), and I visited with her and Dan at Winslow Farms in 2001. Soon I moved to Nashville, Tennessee, and did not return to Bloomington until May of 2017.

Neither she nor Dan were listed where I could find them; I did not remember children's names, although I now remember the name Rita. I assumed Dan and Maxine were no longer with us (as I am now 84 and knew them to be beyond that). I was so surprised to see the picture and obituary in yesterday's paper! Bless both of them. Max's memory and Dan's life!

I am sorry not to have searched harder and had time to visit with Maxine again. I welcome contact from any of her family, please. Is the Golden Living Center here? If so, I wouldn't have been far away as I now live in Winslow Farms where the Joneses lived.

Again, please will someone (Rita) please contact me?

“ Mom made the best Christmas cookies. Everyone couldn't wait to get their tray at the holidays. They were special. Often imitated but never duplicated. Love you mom.
