“ We are so sorry for your loss of your Dad, Wes thought a lot of him and all you kids too. He enjoyed talking with Mel at the John Deere business there in Ellettsville, and hunting groundhogs with Steve and Sam Baynes. You are all in our thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.

“ My oldest daughter was born on Jan. 26th 2001 and I named her Melody after Music. I didnt even realize it was the same day as my Grandfather's Birthday. Now everyone calls her "Mel". Always thought that was kinda cool how that worked out like it did. Grieving for everyone's loss. Wished I could make it. Love everyone, Matt

“ Thank you,
Dad always had a story to tell along with a joke.
He loved all of us, kids.
Worked hard all his life!
I saw him change for all things good when he & Helen married. I'd never known him to be so happy.
When she passed I know he was one of the saddest men on earth....later on thru years God sent him a sweet lady to share a date, a church & friendship true to the end. He was comforted by her care & concern.
It only saddened me that he wouldn't sing anymore without Helen, yet I understood.
He was tough but fair & always ready to share if you had a minute or two.
Stuff never meant much. Serving God & friends to best of his ability was what meant most.
Wasn't hard to please. I'm thankful for great brothers he raised & their spouses that were always there for him..... I was the youngest that filled in gaps
. Of all things I recall it's when he used to toss me up in the air & catch me!! Always scared me yet Daddy never missed. He always caught me.
Much like our Heavenly Father he's always there & catches us. He doesn't ever truly let go or mean us harm....just to trust him.
I'm thankful he's with all those he's missed for so long-
Love & miss you daddy, see you soon!❤️

“ Steven, Stuart and BethAnn
Your dad was A funny and talented man. Loved hearing him sing gospel music during services at New Unionville Baptist church back in the day. He had a great sense of humor. And I still can hear him say a few things in my memory (all funny).

He had a great life and was blessed with a large family.

He will be missed but definitely remembered

*Our sincere condolences
