

Michael Danielson

May 10, 1938 - May 10, 2013

Mike Danielson passed away on his 75th birthday after a long battle with ALS. Mike was a wonderful husband, father, grandfather and more: veteran, golfer, air traffic controller, writer, film and political critic, salesman, humorist, and master gardener. In his youth he enjoyed playing baseball, tennis and guitar. He is survived by his wife of 52 years - Joyce (Douglas) Danielson, his children - Keith (and Martha) Danielson, Kari (and Fred) James, and Ross Danielson, and grandchildren - Mason and Kurt Danielson, and Hannah and Seth James, and extended family including Marcia and Ruby Douglas, and many nieces and cousins. Our special thanks to the staff of IU Health/Bloomington Hospice for their excellent care and support over that last seven months. A private family gathering will be held in lieu of a formal service. Funeral services provided by Allen Funeral Home. Donations in Mike's memory can be made to the ALS Association of Indiana, and Bloomington hospice/IU Health. Mike will be missed by many but never forgotten.

“ Dear Joyce and family. Just picked up the newspaper from being gone all weekend and was very sad to see Mike has passed away. I was the real estate lady who first met you when you came to Bloomington and sharing your name with you. I found it a real pleasure and felt as if you both were a new friend. Mike sent me a lot of referrals and I very much appreciated that. Your children were very small then and now you have grandchildren. My prayers are with you and your family and pray that each of you can carry with you Mikes love and memories forever. God Bless
