

Mildred Velda (Lenard) Campbell

August 4, 1930 - May 26, 2022

Mildred Velda (Lenard) Campbell, 91, of Bloomington passed away on Thursday May 26, 2022 at IU Health Hospice House.

Born on August 4, 1930 in, Carrizozo, New Mexico, she was the daughter of Walter and Edith (Littleton) Lenard. She married Max E. Campbell, Sr. on October 31, 1953 and they were married for 57 years.

Velda was a homemaker and loved nothing more than being a wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She never met a stranger and brought joy to those that were lucky enough to know her. Most importantly, she loved the Lord and her service for the Lord. She was a long time member of Bloomington Baptist Church.

Velda is survived by her daughter, Cheryl A. Campbell of Bloomington; granddaughter, Brandy M. (Gabe) Campbell Beyers; grandson, Max E. Campbell III; great-granddaughter, Olivia A. Beyers; and great-grandson, Aiden G. Beyers.

She was preceded in death by mother and father; husband; brothers, Robert Lenard and Alton Lenard; daughter Linda G. Campbell; and son Max E. Campbell, Jr.

The family will receive friends from 4:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. on Friday June 3rd at Allen Funeral Home and Crematory 4155 South Old State Road 37. Private burial services will be held at Valhalla Cemetery in Bloomington, IN.

“ When I was in my late teens, Velda and I worked as nurse's aids at the hospital in Carrizozo, NM. They supplied a residence for us and we shared a room together. Many evenings we read our Bible together and prayed. She was my sister-in-law, but during that time she became like a sister to me. She had a deep love for the Lord. I look forward to seeing her again. Elaine Erwin
