“ Morris was such a nice guy and loved by all who helped him and became his friend in his recent times while at Bell Trace. I drove him several times a week to and from dialysis appointments so we had lots of time together. He had an amazing memory of places, people & personal events and I enjoyed his short stories. He was always glad to see me at both ends of the trips and always thanked me for taking him. We will miss this interesting, loving man with such a sweet smile and love of life. So sorry for your loss and ours with his passing.
