

Myrna E. Collins

December 16, 1938 - December 22, 2014

Myrna E. Collins, age 76 of Spencer passed away Monday December 22, 2014 at her residence. She was born in Bloomington on December 16, 1938 to Raymond Frazo and Ruby Fultz Frazo.

Myrna was a 1956 graduate of Smithville High School and was proud to be know as a "Skeebo" until the day she died. She spent over 30 years as a beautician in Bloomington working at various shops throughout the years but was proudest of her time spent as a volunteer with the Indiana University Health Bloomington Hospital.

She leaves behind her husband Gene Collins of Spencer, daughter Kim Minett of Palestine, Illinois, son Gilbert "Buck" Kent and his wife Jennifer of Bedford, daughter Kandy Riggins of Solsberry, step daughter Rhonda Collins of Greenwood, step daughter Sharon Barnett of Greenwood, step son Kent Collins of Poland, Indiana; grand children Raymond Kent, Taylor and Makayla King, Jessica Watson, Nicole Gastineau, and Heidi Collins. She is also survived by 7 great grand children. Myrna was preceded in death by her parents, daughter Penny King, sister Ann Edgin, and son in law Brad Minett.

A memorial service to celebrate Myrna's life will be held Saturday January 3, 2015 at the Allen Funeral Home and Crematory 4155 South Old Highway 37. Reverend David Fox will preside. Visitation will also be held Saturday January 3, 2015 at Allen Funeral Home from 1:00PM until the time of the service at 3:00PM.

Memorial contributions may be made in Myrna's honor to the Indiana University Health Bloomington Hospital Foundation and online condolences may be sent to the family at www.allenfuneralhome.org

“ Our Tuesday afternoons are not the same without Myrna's trio delivering flowers. Lots of stories shared and laughter and tears over the years. Special thanks to Myrna for spending time with us as a volunteer and to her family for sharing her with us. Blessings on all of you. Connie Hill and your Volunteer Family
