“ Nancy and Jim were my godparents and they had a tremendous influence on my life. They taught me to behave - even when my parents couldn't - and showed me decades of love and care. They treated me better than I deserved.
I miss them so much.

“ I hated to hear of Nancy's passing. She was my boss at First National Bank then Bank One.
So very nice to work for.
Jimmy and Nancy also lived next door to us on Curry Pike when Dan and I was 1st married. We use to go over and play cards with them.
Nancy was a good woman and cherished her family and friends.
Rest in peace sweet Nancy 🙏❤️

“ I am gutted to hear about the passing on my beloved Aunt Nancy. Nancy was my great aunt through her marriage to Jr. We lived right next door to each other on Curry Pike until I was 9 years old. I spent almost every single day with Nancy for those years, playing for hours on end. She always made me feel so special and loved. I hold dear in my heart the memories of playing "bank teller" with her on her old typewriter, playing restaurant with their wooden play kitchen, and all the Old Fashioned Loaf sandwiches she would make me. My time with her were some of the best memories of my childhood. I love you, Nancy.

“ I am sorry to hear of Nancy's passing. Many years at First National Bank and then Bank One were shared with Nancy. She was always teasing me as I was a single young man and she liked to tease me about girls. She was always friendly and enjoyed teasing. She was always a good friend. John Belden

“ Nancy was my dad's youngest cousin. She and my dad , Herschel, always teased and joked with each other. She always gave my dad a big kiss every time she saw him. She loved to embarrass him. Herschel was the oldest cousin and she was the youngest. She was good to visit my parents when they were in assisted living. She was fun to be around every day. So sad for your loss. With Sympathy, Sharon Lentz Schnier, Herschel's daughter.
