

Nancy Carroll Cabrera

October 28, 1948 - February 22, 2026

Nancy Carrol Cabrera, age 77, of Plant City, Florida passed away Sunday, February 22, 2026 at the South Florida Baptist Hospital in Plant City, Florida, surrounded by family. She was born in Webbville, Kentucky to John Stratton and mother Stella Pennington Stratton on October 28, 1948. She spent her professional career in a few different fields. She worked in radio and television production, she completed beauty college, and worked as a cashier at Costco.

She thoroughly enjoyed spending time outside constantly redesigning landscapes and plant scapes around her pool at her home, as well as enjoying painting, leaving numerous canvases behind for her family to enjoy.

She leaves behind her son, Alex Kiwerski, and his wife Devon, nine grandchildren, six great grandchildren, siblings, Kathy VonPilsen, and her husband, Joe, brother, John Wayne Stratton, and his wife, Vicki, and sister Lois Linthicum. She was preceded in her death by her husband Roberto, her parents, and her daughter Kelly Cato Juneau.

Allen Funeral Home and Crematory 4155 S. Old State Rd. 37 has been trusted with the arrangements for graveside services. They will be held Saturday, February 27, 2026 at 2:00PM in the afternoon at the Clover Hill Cemetery in Harrodsburg Indiana.

“ The first to make me an aunt. She made me an aunt before I was born. Always first. Loved her so much and I will sure miss her. So glad I got to go to Florida and see her twice. She was lost without Kelly.
