

Nancy Ann (Ward) King

July 17, 1937 - March 15, 2025

Nancy Ann King, nee Ward passed away peacefully on March 15, 2025. She was born on July 17, 1937 in Gentryville, Indiana to Albert and Olive Ward. After graduating from Oil Township High School in Perry County, she worked various jobs until meeting the love of her life, Clarence “Bud” King. They were married on February 14, 1957 in Houston, Texas. The couple eventually settled in Bloomington, Indiana where they raised their two sons, Kevin and Keith. Being a mother was her most important and fulfilling role. Later, she continued her love for mothering to her 5 grandchildren. Nancy was known as an excellent cook – especially her sausage gravy, fried potatoes, and sliced tomatoes. Her deviled eggs were a must at all family get-togethers. After raising her boys, she returned to the workforce in interior design and retired from Indiana University Mail Service in 2000. In her retirement, she enjoyed trips to Bradenton, Florida, playing euchre and other board games with family and friends.

She was a member of Sherwood Oaks Christian Church for many years.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, and 3 siblings (Donnie, Roy, and Pete Ward). Nancy is survived by her sons Kevin (Joan), Keith (Darbi), and her five grandchildren

Vincent King (LaRissa), Emily King (fiance Pierce), Lindley King(fiance Jacob), Lauren King, and Kristen (fiance Max), her siblings George Ward (Ike), Pat Williams (Lee), Jean Cupp, and

Jim Ward, and many nieces and nephews.
