“ Kathy and Rick. I worked with your mom at Hidbrader back in the seventies. She was a great lady and we had a lot of fun together. Fondly remember that Susan's cat had kittens and my dad said I couldn't get it, so Nancy and Susan tied a bow around Shadow's neck and brought her in and gave her to me on my birthday. I told dad it would be rude not to accept their gift. Ha! She was the first cat that was allowed to live in the house! Sending my prayers and hugs to you all. I have often wondered about her throughout the years.
