“ I will always remember Elaine's beautiful face at Thanksgiving at Mark and Carol's as she looked at her beloved niece, nephew, and other family members. I'm sorry that she passed too early; but God must have needed another angel.

“ Elaine and her brother Mark were my first and only cousins on the paternal side of the family. Elaine was a beautiful, bright and much loved child who was the apple of her parents'eye. She was the best dressed 2 year old around, I am sure, thanks to her mother's sewing skills. She was also likely the most photographed child around, due to her father's love of picture taking. As I reflect on our life as children, I remember a playful and enthusiastic girl who was treasured by her family. I am sorry for her early passing, but at the same time glad to know that she had the love and help of her wonderful brother, Mark, and his wife, Carol, throughout her life.

“ I visited our local DCS office often. Ms. Moore not only knew me by name, but always made time to chat. She went above and beyond to make me feel welcome. Such sad news. Prayers to her family.
