“ I cannot express how sad and sorry I was to hear about Nancy's passing. There were so many wonderful lunches at Opie's with Dr. Greene's girls. I always looked forward to those days and will miss them and you. Your beautiful smile and quick wit helped me get through many hard times even if you did not know it. Rest well sweet lady. “ I just saw that the post did not include my last name for some reason and I wanted to clear up the confusion. This was a tribute from your eye doctor, Denise Howard.

“ I always enjoyed seeing Nancy in the office and looked forward to her appointments because she was one of my favorite patients. She was proud to be employed by the music school, but even more proud to be a part of her loving family. She loved to laugh and tell stories about George and bragged about Tracy and his family. My deepest condolences for your loss.

“ Memories of my dear friend Nancy.

There are a few... whether it was driving down the road, paddling a canoe, hiking a trail, enjoying an ice cream, picking blackberries, or spending a long afternoon with her just talking.

We shared our past, our present and our future. I treasured our friendship.
