“ I worked with Naomi at the Kinsey Institute when I was a graduate student at Indiana University. Our workstations were next to each other, and I always enjoyed the conversations we had together. She was a kind and whip-smart woman who cared deeply for her friends and family, and it was a blessing to know her. My heart goes out to her family.

“ I worked with Naomi for many years and enjoyed her gentle, kind spirit. We sang together in the Bloomington Feminist Chorus where she helped create such a warm welcoming community. My deepest condolences to her family.
