

Naomi Halstead

May 23, 1918 - January 7, 2015

Naomi Halstead, 96, of Bloomington, passed on Wednesday, January 7, 2015 surrounded by her family.

She was born on May 23rd, 1918, the daughter of Marshall and Nellie Hendricks. She married George Halstead on May 12th, 1937. They traveled extensively throughout the United States prior to his death on July, 1966. She was also preceded in death by her parents, one sister, three brothers and one daughter.

She is survived by one daughter, Betty Turflinger of Albuquerque, NM, eight grandchildren (Connie Poliskie of Bloomington, Patty Powers of Louisville, Kenneth Ryan of Wilmington, NC, Donald Ryan of Jeffersonville, Lisa Ryan of New Albany, Tom Turflinger of Arlington, VA, Sharon Bartlett of Dallas, TX and Sue Ota of Albuquerque, NM), sixteen great-grandchildren, four great-great grandchildren, numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.

She worked for the Indiana University Alumni Office for eight years, was a championship euchre player and volunteer for the Older American Center of Bloomington. In addition to traveling, she has numerous hobbies. She was a skilled seamstress, who also enjoyed embroidery and crochet. She was an avid gardener and cook, best known for her award winning persimmon pudding and dinner rolls. She was a long time member of both the Fairview United Methodist Church and the Sherwood Oaks Christian Church.

Visitation will be held from 9 to 11 a.m. on Saturday, January 10th at Allen Funeral home, 4155 South Old State Road 37, Bloomington, IN, with services immediately following. Burial will take place at Valhalla Memory Gardens.