“ I have fond memories of Nina throughout our school life. Nina came to North Elementary School when we were in the 2nd grade. She was the prettiest girl I had ever laid eyes upon. She and I became "friends" and I'd sometimes walk her home (and carry her books) from school at lunchtime and after school. We were casual friends throughout the next 10 grades, enjoyed visiting at class reunions, and often talked about those days in the 2nd grade. She finally taught me how to "rock 'n roll" dance at our 45th high school reunion. I want her family to know that I will miss her, too.
