“ I have many happy childhood memories of Jean, and all of the Headley family, as close friends of the Spore family, and all of the Mt. Gilead brothers and sisters, young and old! I didn't realize until I read the obituary, that Jean and Joe were married in 1950, as were my parents, Dot and Jerry. I am sorry for your loss; and know it is painful. I plan to attend the service tomorrow. I have beautiful prints of Dad's slides, of our families visiting each other, and the kids at birthday parties, if any of you would like to see them sometime. Love and prayers, Jenny

“ To Patty and the Headley Family So Sorry for your loss. Your mother was a wonderful, kind woman, that everyone loved. I had the privilege to spend time with her the last month of her life. She was such a joy to visit and she brightened my day each time. Not only was she caring and kind, but she worried about me and what I needed to be doing. She loved her family and talked about all of you often. I'm going to miss her. With Sympathy, Rita Hacker
