

Norma Lee Garrett

January 19, 1925 - November 27, 2013

Norma Lee Garrett, age 88 of Bloomington, died Wednesday November 27, 2013 at IU Health Hospice House with her family and caregiver by her side. She was born January 19, 1925 in Rising Sun, Indiana to Jessie and Marie (Blair) Snow.

She received her Bachelor and Master degrees from Indiana University in Health Sciences. Norma was a professor of Modern Dance and Health Sciences at St. Mary's of the Woods and Indiana State University. She was a member of St. Charles Borromeo Catholic Church along with her husband and a previous member of Trinity Episcopal Church.

Norma was an avid golfer, sailor and tennis player. She enjoyed community theatre, acting, set designing and planning events such as Derby Day parties. She loved living in different areas including Michigan, South Texas and Louisville Kentucky. Norma was an American Red Cross Volunteer for natural disasters.

She is survived by her husband Thomas Frederick Garrett of Bloomington and a sister, Charlotte Price of Beech Grove, Indiana. Norma was preceded in death by her parents, her son Butch Broadus, and a brother, Earl Snow.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be conducted Thursday December 5, 2013 at 11:00AM at St Charles Borromeo Catholic Church. Father Thomas Kovatch will preside.

Tribute Wall

AN

“ Aunt Norma,

*It has been almost a year and it doesn't seem the same without you!
You are in our thoughts and prayers. We miss you.*

Love,

Annie

Ann Stickford - October 26, 2015 at 04:08 PM

PA

“ Norma was a lovely, talented gracious lady.

Her projects were many with outstanding results. Times spent with the Garretts in their home on Greenridge Lane was always an enriching experience.

My prayers and sympathy to Tom, Char, and family.

*Pat Saunders
(neighbor--Greenridge)*

Patricia Saunders - October 26, 2015 at 04:08 PM