

Norman Lesage

November 28, 1983 - April 23, 2012

Norm Lesage of Bloomington, IN (formerly of Sturbridge, MA) ended his long struggle with depression on Monday April 23. He was 28 years old. So begins the struggle of so many grieving friends and family members including his parents Michael Lesage & Denise Fontaine, brother Andrew Earnest, sister Jaime Lesage, Auntie Brenda & Uncle Mick Renneisen, Grammy Pauline Fontaine, and former wife Ashley Lesage, all of Bloomington. From MA, he leaves his grandparents Paul & Marie Fontaine, Betty Lesage, great grandmother Mary Livesey, Aunt Patty Colomey and her boys, Uncle Lou & Aunt Connie Fontaine, cousin Nicole Cunningham, best friend Sean Cooney and so many others. Norm's talents and larger than life personality leave a great void with his co-workers and customers from Duncan Supply Co and Auto Heaven, most notably with AJ Bowlen and Chuck Forney. More than anything, he loved going fishing with his dogs Turbo & Trigger as well as playing with Ashley's dogs Whiz Bang & Pop Can, all nicknames he assigned. He enjoyed and masterfully restored anything he could get his hands on with unparalleled results. He would have and should have been a brilliant engineer. He helped countless people in any way he could and took the time to teach them so that they could do for themselves as well. He loved motorcycles, German cars, any vehicle with a motor that he could modify beyond spec to do more or go faster, Kenny Chesney, Nascar, golf and has passed along his cheater wedge to his most loved golf buddy and brother Andy. Though Norm suffered unspeakably with depression, what he loved most and did exceptionally well was to make others laugh. Left behind with anyone fortunate enough to have known him is a story to make them laugh and memory to make them smile. Please dress comfortably and plan to attend a gathering of like hearted people, all whose lives he's touched, at the Bloomington Country Club on Saturday April 28th between 5-8pm. We plan to share stories, support and pay tribute to this extraordinary soul, Norm Lesage.

“ To all of Norms Family,

I am so sorry to all of you, Norm was a very unique person and very special to me and my family, especially to my brother Sean. As you all know Norm and Sean couldn't be closer as far as friends go, sometimes in life you get lucky and you find a friend who you can totally relate too, a friend who compliments you and is there for you no matter what. I was so grateful of thier friendship, I listened to them talk each other through so many of life's problems and support each other no matter what, I just wish he opened up to Sean about this as it came as a big shock to all of us. Loosing Norm is tragic, I wish more than anything we could turn the clocks back, there are so many what if's but at the end of the day all that matters is Norm was one in a billion, and my brothers best friend, a devoted son, brother and sincerely one of the best guys I have ever known in my life, his impact on all of us will never fade. I am so grateful they had each other, Thank you Norm for everything.

To all of Norm's family words cannot express how sorry I am for you loss and how strongly his loss is felt all the way back here in MA. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and will stay with you in the future, he will never be forgotten. Good bye Norm, God Bless.

“ I did not know Norm nor do I know anyone in his family, but I would like to send my condolences to all who loved him. I also wanted to thank and commend those who wrote this obituary for their honesty and heartfelt words. I feel it's very important not to ignore the effects of depression on those who suffer from it and those who are close to those who suffer from it. I hope that more people continue to make the same choice and bring this issue to the forefront to raise awareness of the seriousness of depression and related issues on one's overall health.

“ Mike and Family,

We are so sorry for your loss. We never got to meet Norm personally, but if he was anything like his father, we are sure he was a wonderfully kind-hearted guy. We are thinking of you, may you find some comfort in this difficult time.

“ Words cannot express how much Norm had effected anyone who was fortunate enough to have met him. I, myself will always have Norm in my heart and will remember the laughs that were shared. Norm had this incredible ability to help and explain any mechanical question I had, without making me feel like he was being burdened or like I was dumb for asking. Norm proved to everyone that he had a heart of gold. To his family I am so very sorry for your loss, you will be in my thoughts and prayers. To Norm, you will always be remembered and will always hold a place in everyones heart....until we meet again my friend, i know you will be looking out for us all....love you bro!

“ I'm so sorry to hear of Norm's passing -- it seems wrong to call him by his name; I, and his other friends at the F.W.Webb Company in Auburn, Ma. nicknamed and referred to him as 'Nelson' -- more often 'Nelly'. I don't know why.

Nelly always had an uplifting affect on all around him - he was a joy to know and work with. I missed him the instant he left F.W.Webb, and have thought of him often since then. Whenever he would make contact with one of us, word would spread - 'Hey, I heard from Nelly!', and we would all have to be brought up to date with waht was happening with him.

Michael & Denise; I'm sorry for your loss -- you are in my prayers.
Your friend -- Kevin

“ I didn't know Norm, never even heard of Norm, until this AM when I came across his obituary. What an exceptional young man. Everyone should have wanted to be his friend, if they weren't blessed enough to be already. I can see, from reading what is I am sure a very small snippet of who he was, that he was a blessing to know & to love. My sincerest condolences go out to his family & to his friends.
