

O.C. Bob Boruff, Jr.

July 25, 1939 - December 3, 2012

O.C. Bob Boruff Jr., age 73 of Bloomington passed away Monday evening December 3, 2012 at his residence. Bob was born July 25, 1939 in Bloomington to Oscar Clarence Boruff Sr. and Bonnie Louise Hughes.

He was a graduate of Bloomington High School and spent his professional career in various fields. He worked in residential construction, as a handyman and his most beloved job with Stonebelt. Bob was a Christian man who was known for his constant humor. He was fond of tinkering with all types of items through the years; enjoyed his Odyssey racer, cooking, singing, and being outdoors as often as he could. As a Little Leaguer, Bob pitched the first no hitter at Smithville Little League. Bob will always be remembered for the kindnesses he showed all types of animals, especially his beloved dog Lilly.

Bob leaves behind his wife Connie M. Boruff of Bloomington; daughters Nikita Mullikin and her husband James of Spencer; Tonya Thurman and her husband Jerry of Gosport; Tracy Burch of Ellettsville; Lisa Clapper and her husband of Martinsville; Karen Fleener and her husband Jeff, also of Martinsville. Bob was grandpa to Jake, Chad, and Abby Burch; Whitney Clapper, Tiffany, Kayla, and Cassidy Kinley; and Scott and Zach Fleener.

He is also survived by his sister Joan McGee and her husband of Gainesville, Florida, and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, sisters Janet Boruff, and Betty Adams and two infant sisters.

Funeral services for Bob will be conducted Saturday December 8, 2012 at 2:00PM at Allen Funeral Home 4155 South Old Highway 37. Sylvester Page will preside. Burial will follow at the Chambersville Cemetery. Visitation will be Friday December 7, 2012 from 5:00PM until 8:00PM also at Allen Funeral Home.

The family has asked in lieu of flowers friends make a donation to Stonebelt in Bob's memory at www.stonebelt.org.

Online condolences may be sent to the family at www.allenfuneralhome.org.
