

Olga Kieffer

April 28, 1921 - August 29, 2010

Olga Bertha Kieffer, 89, of Bloomington, formerly of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, passed away August 29, 2010 at the Stonebridge Health Campus in Bedford, Indiana. She was the daughter of Michael and Hermine (Schuler) Kottner born April 28, 1921 in a German Village. Olga was a homemaker, she and her husband and two children immigrated to Pittsburgh, PA in 1950 she resided there until 2004 and then moved to Bloomington. She is survived by her two daughters, Gert Fisher and husband Jeff of Bloomington, IN and Carol Boss and husband Leonard of Henderson, NV; one son Gerhard Kieffer and wife Nancy of Butler, PA; one sister Jolanthe Kottner of Germany; four grandchildren Greg, Jerry, Gretchen and Jason Fisher; three great grandchildren Emily, Andrew and Zoe Fisher. She was preceded in death by her parents and husband Adolf Kieffer A private family service will be held in Butler, Pennsylvania at a later date. Memorial contributions may be made to the Alzheimer's Association in memory of Olga.

Tribute Wall

GR

“ Dear Gary and Carol,
Our sincerest sympathy to you and your families and your sister. So hard to lose your Mom, we know how you feel. Her suffering is over.
Roger and Gloria

Gloria and Roger Wenzel - March 22, 2013 at 08:20 AM

DO

“ Gert, I am so sorry about the loss of your precious Mother. I have heard so many wonderful stories about her from the time she arrived at Stonebridge until her passing. She was a wonderful, loved woman.
I am glad that I got to meet your Mother and get to know you a little. You are a wonderful daughter and it was so sweet watching you interact with Olga and talk to her in German.
Your love for your Mother will be rewarded to you some day. Take Care, Donna

Donna Moffitt - March 22, 2013 at 08:20 AM

JS

“ Dear Gert,

I am so sorry to read about the passing of your mother in today's Post-Gazette. My deepest sympathy to you and your family.

Jeanne

Jeanne Cheberenchick Stefanac - March 22, 2013 at 08:20 AM