

Opal Marie Moore

December 1, 1923 - March 5, 2018

Opal Marie Moore, 94 of Bloomington passed away on Monday, March 5, 2018 at the Bell Trace Health & Living in Bloomington. She was born December 1, 1923 in Tunnelton, West Virginia the daughter of David Henry and Icie Pearl (Phillips) Halbritter. She graduated from Tunnelton High School in Tunnelton, West Virginia in 1941.

Opal went to work for Glen L Martins when she was 18 and drove a rivet truck for the Rosie Riveters during the war. She married Harold Cecil Moore on October 11, 1945 and was a homemaker, she enjoyed reading, walking, and visiting family and friends.

She is survived by her daughter; Karen L. (James) Hahn of Bloomington, two grandchildren; Jessica M (Jesse) Lawrence of Indianapolis, Gavin M (Megan) Hahn of Brownsburg and one great granddaughter; Evelyn Grace Hahn.

Her parents and Husband and seven siblings preceded her in death.

A private memorial service will be held at a later date. Cremation Rites have been accorded. You are invited to share a memory or leave an online condolence to the family at www.allencares.com

Tribute Wall

HB

“ When my wife and I shared Bell Trace with Opal as our homes, I remember Opal's desire to have " her table" in the dining room - always the first table to the left of the entry. She arrived early so as to assure "getting her place." And, she was choosy as to who she shared that table, having her preferred list of residents. Opal had an enjoyable personality and we were glad to know her. May she rest in peace?

Harmon Baldwin - March 07, 2018 at 07:42 AM