

Pamela Denise Dillion

February 16, 1947 - February 27, 2015

Pamela Denise Dillion age 68 of Bloomington passed away Friday February 27, 2015 at her residence. She was born in Bloomington on February 16, 1947 to William S. Day and Dorothy J. Cassidy Day.

Pam spent her professional career as a cosmetologist working for both Merle Norman Cosmetics and the Lazarus Department store. She took great pride and joy in helping other women look and feel their very best. Pam also belonged to the First Free Methodist Church.

Pam leaves behind her son Timothy Pfaff; granddaughter Lauren Pfaff, and a sister Debbie Miller, all of Bloomington. She was preceded in death by her parents.

Allen Funeral Home and Crematory 4155 South Old Highway 37 is handling the arrangements and a gathering to celebrate Pam's life will be announced at a later date.

Online condolences may be sent to the family at www.allenfuneralhome.org.

“ I knew Pam only later in her life but have a feeling if we would've met sooner we would've been fast friends. We shared many laughs and giggles and shared a passion for hair, makeup, clothes and all things girly. She gave great advice and had a wonderful sense of humor. I will certainly miss her! My deepest sympathy to the family and many friends she leaves behind. God bless you during this difficult time.
