“ Pam blessed so many people with her kindness, I feel so lucky that I got to know her.
I am praying that you will find comfort in your memories of her and in the knowledge that others are missing her, too.
My heart goes out to you and your family.

“ Pam, although we had grown apart. I will cherish the memories of our times together. Indy 500 races, trip to CA, shopping, and parties at my home in Indy. Those fond memories can never be forgotten. RIP my friend.

“ Pamela, The Mighty Pamela is what I used to call this gal. She was quite a wonderful woman. I loved her very much, sisterly love and brother, keep faith for God so Loved The World he left his Only Son. I restore you back to faith by gathering stones as beginning in a new life only the Father can see. Amen.
A hearty friend, remembers when and where they have been before the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Ghost. GB
