

Patricia Lambert

January 14, 1937 - March 9, 2020

On Monday, March 9, 2020, Patricia Lambert, Bloomington, Indiana, passed away at the age of 83. Pat was born on January 14, 1937 in Indianapolis, Indiana to Raymond and Pauline Bly.

She was a graduate of Ben Davis High School and attended Butler University. On February 5, 1955, she married Freeman Lambert. They raised three children in Greencastle, Indiana. Denise, Marcella, and Doug. She was a Christian and an active member of churches the Lord led her to.

She retired as a real estate agent and broker for Re-Max. For decades she was active in Eastern Star, holding positions as Worthy Matron, District Deputy, and Grand Representative to Washington State. She was an avid bowler, winning many local, state, and national titles. Her highest sanctioned score was 290! She was a singer, having sung at many events, some for an audience of thousands. She was also passionate about flower arranging, the Indianapolis Colts, and the Indiana Pacers.

Pat was preceded in death by her parents, and son, Doug.

She is survived by her loving husband of 65 years, Freeman; daughters, Denise Newton, Bloomington, Indiana and Marcella (William) Kirkland, Tampa, Florida; grandchildren, Krystal Kirkland-Wood, Kimberly Kirkland, Kerry

Kirkland, Hayley Lambert, Mallisa Mason, Robert Mason, and great-grandchild, Jayden Ruiz; siblings, Donna Thiekie, Kokomo, Indiana, Gary (Sheila) Bly, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, and Beverly Smith, Martinsville, Indiana; nieces, Danielle Martin, Heather Million, and many other loving nieces and nephews.

There will not be a service. The family requests that those wishing to donate in Pat's name, please donate to lymphaticnetwork.org. Allen Funeral Home and Crematory, 4155 S. Old State Road 37, have been entrusted with arrangements. Online condolences, photos, and memories may be shared with family and friends at www.allencares.com