“ I was saddened to hear the passing of Aunt Pat
She was always so kind to me and my brother growing up.
We always looked forward to our visits and enjoyed the stories we heard . Her voice was so destictive and her character was rich with charm. Those memories are very clear to me and I will always enjoy remembering them .

“ Aunt Pat's life was a wonderful example of motherhood and devotion to family. She was a force to be reckoned with. She commanded loving respect and returned it two fold. I apologize for not being able to attend the services, but I am well represented by my parents. Know that my thoughts and prayers are with you all. I am confident that Christ received Aunt Pat with open arms before yielding quickly to Uncle Jan.

“ Rosie (and family),

You all are in my prayers for God's strength and comfort.
May he stand with you and comfort you in the weeks to come.

In His love,

Dee Dee

“ The words do not come that can express what a remarkable lady she was while here with us. I am sure that anyone who ever met her have special memories. I believe Pat is a real role model for what a woman should be. I just wanted to let you know that I loved her and my heart is hurting for her loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy, with much love.
